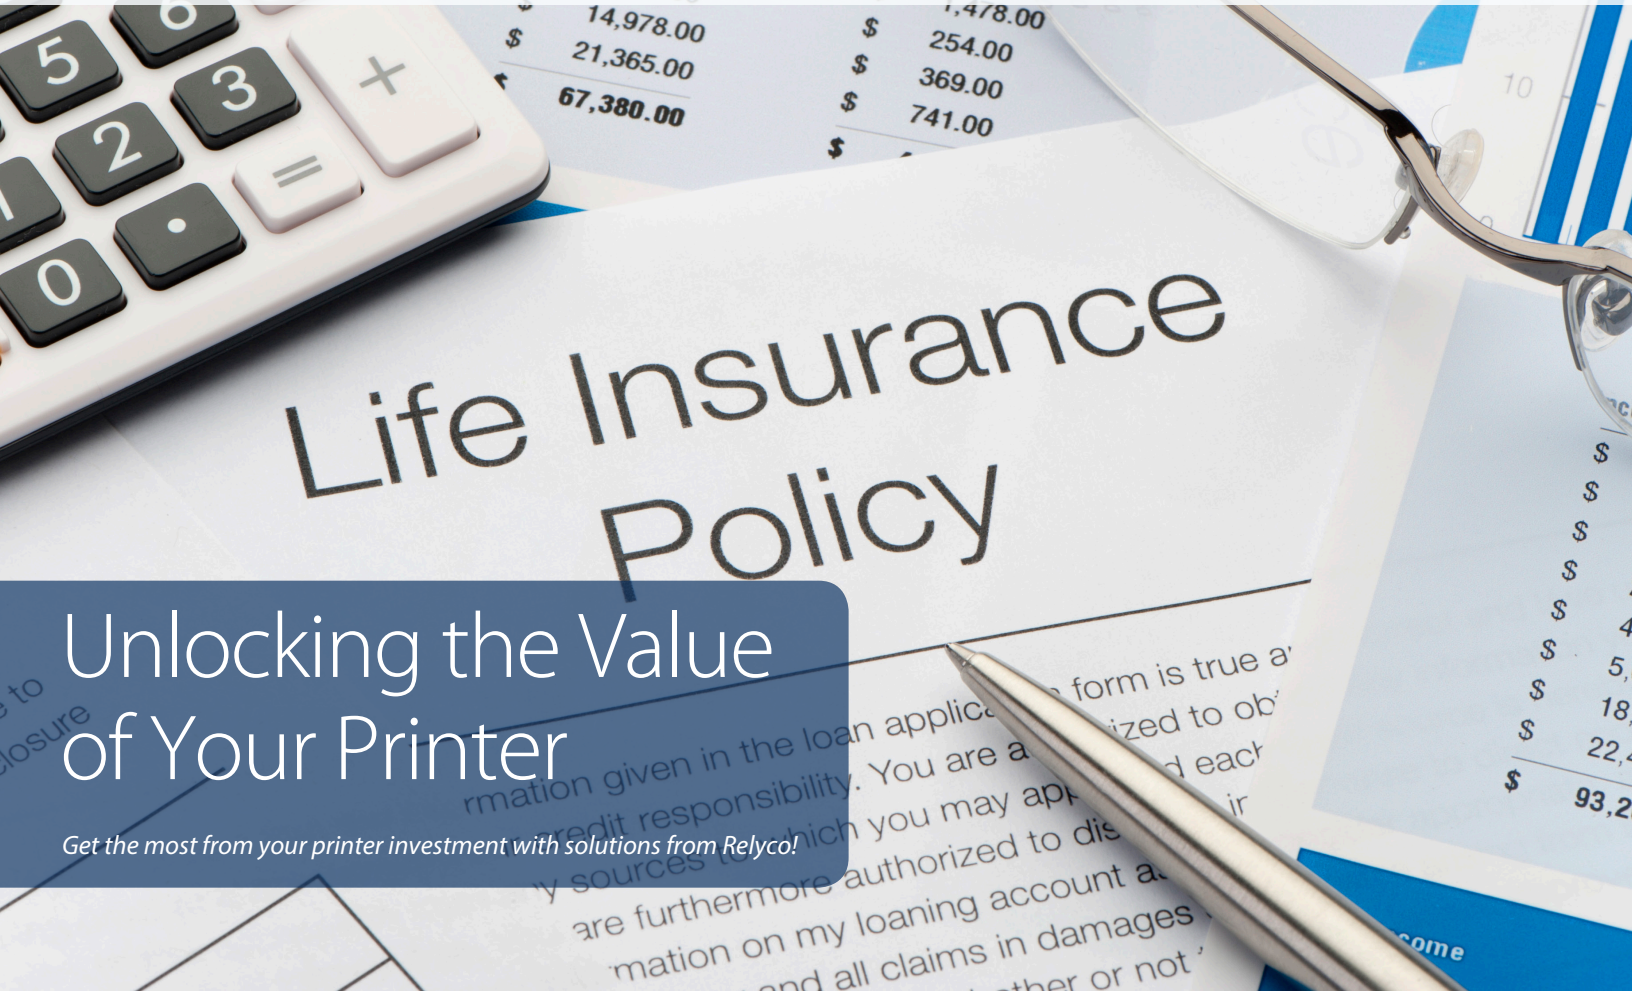
RELYCO®
THE SPECIALTY PAPER EXPERTS



Unlocking the Value of Your Printer

Get the most from your printer investment with solutions from Relyco!

When you have the right tools, your laser, inkjet or digital printer is the workhorse of your business, and insurance companies benefit when they leverage their printers in innovative ways.

Consider this…

- An auto insurance agency welcomes new members by printing welcome letters with an integrated identification card
- A health insurance company prints and delivers secure reimbursements with self-mailer pressure seal checks
- A life insurance company relies on customizable invitation mailers and table tents to promote their business
- A property insurance company prints boat policies and identification cards on durable, tear-proof, waterproof paper
- A home insurance company relies on carbonless laser paper for new home and weather damage inspections
- A health insurance company uses secure envelopes to send documents securly

Offering all of these solutions – and more – is possible with your laser printer. You just need the right types of paper for your applications – and Relyco can help.
