Signage That Weathers The Elements

Your signage works hard—from the greenhouse to retail displays—and it needs to hold up under heat, humidity, water and wear. Our REVLAR® synthetic paper delivers weatherproof signage that stays vibrant, legible and intact without frequent replacements.

REVLAR Colors For Eye-Catching Displays

Say goodbye to flood coating and hello to REVLAR Premium Colors—vibrant, ready-to-use synthetic paper designed for the horticulture and plant industry. Durable, eye-catching and hassle-free, it's the colorful, low-maintenance upgrade your greenhouse, nursery or garden center has been waiting for.

“We use RELYCO’s REVLAR Premium paper for signage in the retail space of our plant nursery. It holds up well to the elements, which is exactly what we needed for outdoor use. It saves us time by not having to replace signs as often, and ordering has always been easy.”

—JON STROEBELE, COLONIAL GARDENS

WATERPROOF LABELS

The right label makes all the difference in wet, humid or high-touch environments. Our tear-proof and waterproof synthetic labels ensure your UPCs, grow information, weights and branding stay readable from greenhouse to checkout. Choose removable or permanent options to fit your needs.

Long-Lasting Plant Tags and Markers

A smarter alternative to polystyrene, our synthetic papers deliver lasting durability for hang tags, plant markers and price tags — built to withstand sun, water, soil and daily handling. Available as die cuts or in full sheets!
