

Tough Tags and Signs for Lumber Operations

Yards, warehouses and jobsites are hard on paper. Rain, snow, sunlight and constant handling damage standard signs and tags fast. RELYCO gives you durable materials you can print in-house and trust from the yard to the jobsite.

REVLAR® Synthetic Paper

For signs and tags that need to hold up on bunks, racks, pallets and jobsites.

- Waterproof, tear-proof, all-weather — no lamination needed
- Bright color options for promos and safety call-outs without flood coating
- Solid core polyester for crisp print and less static
- Available in stocked sizes and thicknesses so you're not waiting on long lead times
- Die-cut options for hang tags and specialty applications

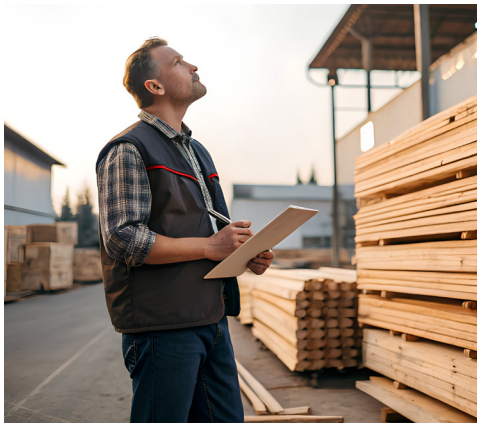

“We use RELYCO’s REVLAR Premium synthetic paper to create identification tags for our outdoor equipment. We needed a durable material for the tags, as the equipment is outside and gets dirty. REVLAR is a much better solution than laminating paper—it holds up well and saves us time since we no longer have to laminate anything. It’s a good product and easy to order online.”
